Study enterprise plan

During a regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, the Granite City Board of Education is expected to consider action on a Quad-City area enterprise zone.

The proposed zone would affect a large part of School District Nine, including territory south of 23rd Street and large industrial areas, one along the southeast fringe of the district and another west of Illinois Highway Three.

SCHOOLS WOULD ABATE for four years any increase in real estate taxes at sites where new businesses were established as part of the zone.

Illinois is among the states authorizing enterprise zones as a way of luring employers to communities plagued by unemployment. Also on Tuesday's agenda is reorganization of the school board for the next 12 months.

THERE IS speculation that 1983-84 President David Partney and Treasurer Kelly Hogan will swap their board offices for 1984-85, with Alan Crider succeeding Thomas Morsky as secretary.

On Tuesday, Nov. 20, the board is to spend about two hours reviewing proposed arrangements for conducting a search for a new superintendent of schools.

County board stays 26-3 Democratic

Madison County Board membership will remain 26-3 Democratic after last week's election, in which Edwardsville Township Supervisor Robert Stille (D) defeated Board Member Jim Hanks (Republican) of Edwardsville, 2,175 to 1,730.

Herschel F. Beane (R), Godfrey, who had lost his board position to Robert L. Copley (D) in an earlier election, won it back in the Nov. 6 balloting, 1,918 to 1,782.

Richard Hugh Worthen (D), Alton, gained re-election over Michael H. Collier (R), 2,199 to 1,552.

FORMER STATE Representative Harold D. Byers (D), Highland, won another County Board term by topping Elmer J. Luber (R), 2,092 to 1,769. Luber is a former member of the board.

Collinsville's Fred A. Dalton (D) defeated Mel Jones (R), 2,233 to 1,465.

Democrats re-elected without opposition included William Little of Alton, 2,391; Robert Church of Alton, 2,254; Anthony Bessich of Wood River, 2,575; Leroy Kuchel of East Alton, 1,997; and Donald W. McLean of Edwardsville, 2,675.

DANIEL DONORIO (D), Wood River, was elected without opposition, tallying 2,859 votes, after defeating incumbent George A. Schmittling in the March 1984 primary.

Local winners in County Board voting were Donald Garrett (D) and Frank Dutko (D), both of Madison, and Herbert "Junior" Milton (D), Granite City.

The 29-member board is led by Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City and Vice Chairman Morris Miles of Mitchell. Half the board is elected each two years to four-year terms.

The other Republicans along with Beane are Homer Henke and William Aery.

Another 'home town' US senator

Republican Ralph T. Smith, a home town product (born in Granite City), served in the U.S. Senate in the 1960s. Now, another "local boy has made good" by reaching that exclusive, 100-member legislative body.

Democrat Paul Simon, while never residing here, knocked on every Quad-City area door in campaigning successfully for the General Assembly in 1954 and continued to represent this community at Springfield until 1968, when he became lieutenant governor.

SIMON NEVER LOST an election

while bucking the dominant political organization but he was upset in the 1972 primary for governor when he had both the formal and active backing of the Illinois Democratic Central Committee.

President wins 2 of 4 townships

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

Re-elected by a landslide as the nation's 40th president, Republican Ronald Wilson Reagan did not fare that well locally but nevertheless received impressive backing from Quad-Cityans.

Communitywide tallies available Friday showed Pres. Reagan winning outright in Nameoki and Chouteau townships by 485 and 104 votes. He trailed by only 80 votes in Granite City and by 2,407 in Venice Township, the most Democratic of the four Democratically-inclined townships.

WITH 28,914 VOTES cast in the Nov. 6 balloting here, the president garnered 13,125 to 15,022 for Democrat Walter F. Mondale, a difference of 1,898.

Mr. Reagan won everywhere except in Minnesota and Washington D.C., earning 526 electoral votes to break the previous record of 523 received by Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936. The Mondale total was 13.

Biggest vote-getter against an opponent in the four townships, as is traditional, was Congressman Melvin Price (D) of East St. Louis, Armed Services Committee chairman.

In qualifying to extend his 40 consecutive years of House service to 42, the legislator led here, 19,731 to 12,400.

2,500 attend arts festival

Officials estimate more than 2,500 students participated in the seventh annual Very Special Arts Festival last Thursday and Friday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Quad-City area schools participating in the festival included Madison Junior High School and Prather, Wilson and Marshall elementary schools.

Ida Lacey of Madison High School presented an activity booth consisting of geometric sculpture.

JOHN LEWIS of the Cahokia schools says the festival was "designed to show teachers and kids how art work can be used to enhance teaching." The festival included activities in theater, art and entertainment.

"The festival's theme this year was 'Building Rainbows.'"

"Rainbows are symbols of hope," commented Diane Savoca, chairman of the festival. "We want to encourage hope in the young handicapped children."

THE FESTIVAL was sponsored by SIUE, the Lewis and Clark Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children, the Madison County Arts Council, the Arts and Education Council of Greater St. Louis, the Illinois State Board of Education, the Illinois Alliance for Arts Education, and the National Committee, Arts of the Handicapped.

$40,000 Tree of Lights goal

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

Christmas cheer will be spread this year by the Salvation Army's Tree of Lights fund campaign, scheduled to be launched during a luncheon at noon Tuesday, Nov. 20, in Wesley Hall of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue.

Dal Maxvill, former Granite City man who was a World Series star for the St. Louis baseball Cardinals, will be the guest speaker.

Maxvill, baseball's best-fielding shortstop in the 1960s, is third-base coach for the Atlanta Braves, having been rehired for 1985 after most of the coaching staff was dismissed at the end of the 1984 season. He is co-owner of a travel agency.

A $40,000 GOAL has been set for the 1984 Tree of Lights, compared to the $36,000 objective a year ago, when the $40,000 mark was topped.

The campaign finances holiday food and toys for area families. Each $25 gift lights a bulb on the Salvation Army Christmas tree.

Drive chairman will be Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr., who has held several offices in the Division of officers of the Alton Temple Shrine.

Married and the father of two, Slate is a former state master counselor of the DeMolay. He graduated with honors from Washington University, where he later received his law degree. The veteran attorney opened his own law office in 1975.

SLATE HAS SERVED as president of the Tri-City Area YMCA, president of the Tri-City Bar Association, chairman of trustees of Niedringhaus Methodist Church, and on the boards of many local organizations.

An arbitrator and former special assistant attorney general, Slate has been the attorney for a variety of area governmental agencies, including Nameoki Township, the Madison County Special Service Area and assignments for the City of Granite City and the Granite City School District.

MASTER OF ceremonies Nov. 20 will be Richard C. Suess, 1964-65 chairman of the Salvation Army advisory board.

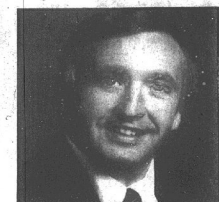

A Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. representative and manager here since 1957, Suess is active in St. John United Church of Christ and a member of Metropolitan's Sales Advisory Council for seven Midwestern states.

Suess chaired the Rotary District 646 conference for central and southwestern Illinois clubs this year, and has received many awards and honors in the insurance field. He has taught life underwriting training sessions at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

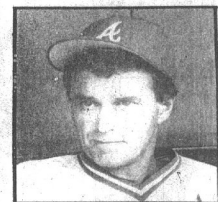

IRVIN C. SLATE SR. is vice chairman of the Salvation Army board. Harriet Hoff is secretary and James Jeffries is treasurer.

Mrs. Norma Yelton, James D. Hudson and James R. Schmedake will be welcomed as new members of the advisory board next week. The local commanders are Captain and Mrs. Lavern Poling.

Kickoff luncheon tickets cost $5 and will be available at the door. Meal reservations are being made by calling the Salvation Army at 451-7957.

IRVIN SLATE JR. The local attorney is chairman of the Christmas 1984 Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign.

DAL MAXVILL. The former Granite Cityan who has won baseball fame will be the "Tree of Lights" kickoff speaker.

U.S. flag stolen from tall flagpole

Veterans Day is being observed today and a thief celebrated the occasion in an odd fashion at about 1 a.m. Nov. 11 by climbing a 35-foot flagpole and stealing a 5x7-foot American flag.

The flag was being displayed by Larry Knipping, 2340 Terminal Ave., on the lawn at the front of his residence.

Whoever took it must have climbed to get it, since there was no hoisting rope, Knipping told authorities.

Q: You've often mentioned that estate planning is almost a necessity these days. However, it's always been my understanding that estate planning is quite an expensive proposition, without immediate returns. How do you justify this?

A: We believe that a recently published report presents the case for estate planning. The report concentrated on farmers who participated in an estate planning program set by a bank. Although the cost of estate planning varies, the average cost in this study was well below $1,000. However, the first 55 farmers who participated in the plan reportedly saved an average of $603 each in 1983, mostly through a reduced insurance need. These participants also saved their families a total of $83,000 in potential estate taxes. The same study also pointed up another startling fact: Roughly 45% of all farmers do not have wills — one of the primary fundamentals of all estate planning. With the actual and potential savings cited in this report, it certainly seems that estate planning can pay immediate as well as future returns.

GARY SCHNEIDER, Editor

Is it proper to take sides?

With last week's election now history and with the Granite City public schools having been relieved of much of their debt thanks to the voters, a great deal of thought has focused on what was done right and what was done wrong during the campaign.

The Press-Record has received a great deal of praise and credit from supporters of the school referendum. "We could not have done it without the tremendous support you gave us," school proponent Eric Robertson said.

Those who were opposed to increased taxation for the schools have said very little to us. Yet, we have to stop and look at what the Press-Record did. We provided our readers a constant flow of information about the bond issue, the tax referendum and the dire financial plight of the school district.

Some issues of the paper had as many as eight articles dealing with the schools, including coverage of board meetings and talks by administrators, school board members and school supporters to various groups.

In addition, early on, we took an editorial stand supporting passage of both school referendums. That editorial stand was repeated several times, including on the front page the day before the election.

Some Press-Record stories unquestionably had a pro-school slant, such as articles interviewing students about the possible elimination of extra-curricular activities and citing the question of whether this year's homecoming might be the last. But they were based entirely on fact; a shutdown of programs and even the district itself was a real possibility.

The bond issue passed by a comfortable margin; the tax referendum did not win, but by a margin of less than 300 votes out of more than 20,000 cast. Residents of School District 9 gave clear and strong evidence of being aware of the importance of a good school system.

Did we exceed the purpose of a newspaper by reporting on the school drive in such detail? We think not. Certainly, all available opposing viewpoints were published.

One job of a true newspaper is to push editorially for the best possible community. We push for growth and to make the Quad-City area a better place. We attend all school board meetings, and virtually all records and documents about the schools are made available to us. Only after careful consideration did we decide that passage of the school referendums was essential, to keep the schools operating effectively.

At that point, we began editorially attempting to appeal to voters, with much information and with direct editorial commentary on the schools. It worked.

"Four weeks ago, I wouldn't have thought the referendums had a ghost's chance. I could feel the public swaying toward our side in the last few weeks," School Board President David Partney told us. "Now we've got some breathing room," he added.

We hope the Press-Record played a role in turning that tide. Failure to support our schools could have been the beginning of the end for this community, as we know it.

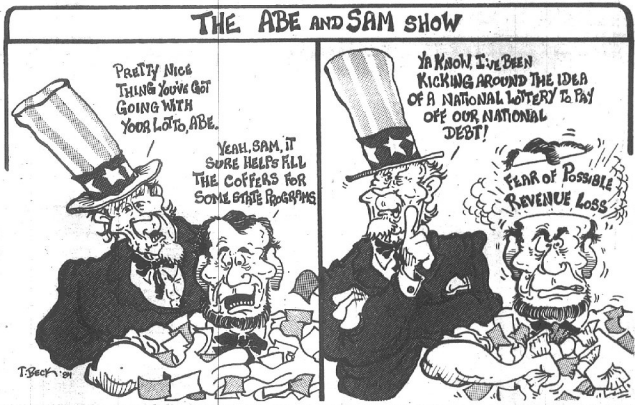

Above all, we feel a newspaper has an obligation to see that the community—upon which that newspaper depends—survives.

Missouri state lottery

Elinor Null, Granite City
"Yes, it will have a detrimental effect. Illinois will lose a lot of revenue and we won't have the high jackpots here like we've had in the past. I won't play both lotteries. I'm going to stick to the one in Illinois."

Dean Belcher, a Granite City worker
"No, I don't think it will have a detrimental effect because you'll still have people from Illinois, Indiana and Missouri playing. People will just play two lottery tickets instead of one. I won't go out of my way to play the Missouri lottery, but if I'm in the area, I might pick up a ticket."

Bill Shreck, a Granite City worker
"Yes, I think it will hurt the Illinois lottery. There were so many people here from Missouri playing the game. I'd have to guess that at least 25 percent of the buyers in St. Clair and Madison counties, were from Missouri. I won't play the Missouri lottery. I won't drive over there or go through standing in the lines to play."

Loveen Morineau, a Granite City worker
"I think the approval of the Missouri State Lottery will have an effect on the Illinois lottery sales but I don't know how significant it will be. We still have a lot of bordering states who do not have lottery sales, so we'll still have out-of-state players coming in. I probably won't buy a Missouri ticket—if I'm going to play, I'll stay in Illinois."

Utter confusion in federal purchasing rules

To the Editor:
Recently, the federal government bought a forklift truck for the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in Illinois.

It has caused me a great deal of concern and should cause Illinois taxpayers a great deal of concern.

Ordinarily, the purchase of a single piece of equipment might not be of much significance. But in this case, the forklift was manufactured by Komatsu, a Japanese firm, and purchased instead of a competitively priced machine priced by Caterpillar of Peoria.

Obviously, it is difficult to understand exactly why the federal government would purchase a foreign-made tractor meant to be operated virtually down the road from where the best tractors in the world are made.

I inquired with the Corps officials involved in making the purchasing decision to find out the reasons. The Corps of Engineers told me there seems to have been some "confusion" surrounding the federal procurement regulations that should or should not be applied to this case by federal buyers.

Under the "Buy American Act," the government is required to add 1 percent to the actual bids of foreign competitors.

If that addition brings the foreign product to about the same price as the American product, then the American firm should be awarded the contract.

Since the Komatsu tractor cost less than the Caterpillar product, even with the added six percent, the government claims it is saving the taxpayers' money.

What is apparently missed by the rule-makers, however, is that the continued ability of the government to make these procurements depends, to a certain extent, on supporting American manufacturing.

I have now come to find that the regulation that should have been applied in this case would have added

50 percent to the Komatsu bid, rather than six percent.

Had it been applied, the Caterpillar tractor would have clearly been lower priced than the foreign model.

If it were simply one tractor, the mistake might be understandable. Yet, this is not an isolated incident.

The federal government, specifically the Defense Construction Supply Center in Ohio, recently purchased 10 Komatsu vehicles under the same confusing rules.

In order to resolve some of this confusion, I've asked for an investigation into the decision-making process in these matters.

It would seem that we have too many laws and regulations on federal procurement and too many exceptions to all of them.

Jobs in America depend on resolving this problem and I intend to find out what it takes to solve it.

Beware of moves to repeal tax indexing

To the Editor:
A skilled pickpocket will bump against your shoulder to distract your attention from the hand gliding into your coat pocket.

An accomplished magician will call your attention to a whisk of his cape or a cloud of smoke while his real sleight of hand makes something or someone disappear.

The politicians who are promising (threatening?) to balance the budget by raising taxes are trying to play much the same game.

The tax-and-spend politicians face a dilemma. They wanted our votes on Nov. 6. They also want more of our money on April 15.

Thus, they have to convince us that all those taxes are going to come from someone else. Who?

Well, the politicians' trick, every bit the sleight of hand of the magician or the pickpocket, is to convince the voters that the tax hike will be paid by "the rich."

The operative definition of "rich" is someone who is making more money than the person to whom the politician is speaking at any given moment.

Let's think about this for a moment. If the politicians took every penny of income from those making more than, say, $100,000 a year, they still couldn't run the government for more than one month.

No, the federal government simply spends too much money—and there are too few rich people—to allow us to balance the budget that way.

The true target of these tax increases is yet again the middle class. This is because, as Willie Sutton said in explaining why he robbed banks, "That is where the money is."

Most liberal congressmen and senators are afraid to tamper with the popular Reagan tax cut that reduced marginal tax rates for all Americans by 25 percent across the board.

The liberals' game is to create a smokescreen by screaming about soaking the rich while they move quickly and, they hope, undetected, to repeal "indexing."

Indexing is the part of the 1981 Reagan tax cut that will increase our tax brackets at the same rate as inflation. The provision is scheduled to take effect in 1985 and would, once and for all, repeal the hidden and, frankly, dishonest tax of "bracket creep."

If indexing is repealed, and your paycheck increases at the rate of inflation, you may find yourself in a higher tax bracket. You are earning the same in real income but Uncle Sam is taxing you as if you were getting richer.

Back in 1960, only three percent of Americans were taxed at marginal tax rates of 30 percent or more. Those were the "rich."

By 1981, the hidden forces of inflation and bracket creep had pushed more than one-third of all American taxpayers into brackets of 30 percent or more.

What's worse, the inflation that pushed us into higher brackets was caused by the same government that benefitted. By inflating the currency, the government brought in more tax money without a vote from Congress.

It was a neat trick and some politicians want to keep it that way. To them, the good old days were when a 10 percent inflation rate increased taxes by 17 percent by pushing us into higher brackets.

The hidden tax of bracket creep would hit middle-income America the hardest. This is because higher-income individuals are already paying the top marginal rate.

Indeed, the Heritage Foundation reports that 80 percent of the tax dollars that would be raised by repealing the indexing provision would come from taxpayers earning below $50,000. Only 1.2 percent would come from those earning $200,000 or more.

We cannot afford to be fooled by those who promise to tax someone else.

UFO researcher to speak in area

The Quad County chapter of the Mutual UFO Network (MUFON) will hold its monthly dinner meeting Tuesday, Nov. 13, 6:30 p.m. at Rascals Restaurant in Collinsville.

Powell Adams, former Missouri state director of MUFON, will be speaking on "UFO Propulsion Systems." Mr. Adams' interest in UFOs was sparked many years ago by two unusual sightings of his own. Since that time, his degree in physics, coupled with his personal insensitivity regarding the subject matter has led him into intense research.

Adams also will discuss his theory behind the (original) Philadelphia Experiment versus the current fictionally enhanced movie version of the incident.

Alleged wartime experiments in anti-gravity led to the supposed invisibility of one of our ships and the servicemen on it. There has been enormous controversy and debate over the incident ever since. Many of the servicemen were never found again and several that did reappear were discharged with extreme mental problems.

Further information on this meeting may be obtained from Karen Tellow, Illinois state section director of MUFON at 345-7460.

Zoning for Waffle House to be considered by County Board

A request to rezone 1.78 acres from an R-3 highway business district to an M-1 limited-manufacturing district in Chouteau Township is one of several zoning requests to be considered by the Madison County Board when it meets at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the county courthouse in Edwardsville.

Theodore W. Kapp, marketing representative for Waffle House, and Henry W. Schroeder III, purchaser, have made the request, which involves property located on West Chain of Rocks Road near Route 2.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended that the zoning request be granted. Another request by Verna Barnett, owner, and Darrell Gall, purchaser, asks that the board grant a special use permit and variation in order to operate a heating and cooling business along with commercial refrigeration in an existing building in an R-4 single-family district in Nameoki Township. The building is located in Cloverleaf Addition on Collinsville Avenue.

The Board of Appeals has recommended that the County Board approve the request.

Additional zoning requests involve mobile homes in the Quad-City area. The Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended that a request for a special use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home in an R-3 one-family residence district in Nameoki Township be denied.

The request from Robert C. and Cheryl Wright, owners, and Dale and Theresa Phillips, occupants, involves property located along Breckenridge Lane after its intersection with Lake Drive.

Also recommended for denial is a request for a special use permit from John Tarlas, owner, and Nancy and Bill Bridges, occupants, of a mobile home in the petting building to place a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district along McCambridge Avenue near Meridian Avenue in Nameoki Township.

The following zoning requests have been recommended for approval by the Zoning Board of Appeals:

—Richard A. and Tammy M. Smiley for a special use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home in an R-3 single-family residence district at 456 Division St. in Nameoki Township.

—Gary E. Wright for a special use permit and a variation to continue the placement of a mobile home in an agricultural district off Route 162 on Stallings Road in Nameoki Township.

—Clyde A. Switzer, owner, and Robert and Mabel Orlander, occupants, for a special use permit to place a mobile home in an agricultural district at the intersection of Central and Belt avenues in the Cloverleaf Addition in Nameoki Township.

—Clyde A. Switzer, owner, and Robert and Mabel Orlander, occupants, for a special use permit to place a mobile home in an agricultural district at the intersection of Central and Belt avenues in the Cloverleaf Addition in Nameoki Township.

—Fred T. Harline, owner, and Nita and Brandi Barton, purchasers and occupants, for a special use permit to place a mobile home in an agricultural district at the intersection of Central and Belt avenues in the Cloverleaf Addition in Nameoki Township.

Citizen involvement showcase tomorrow

National Community Education day is tomorrow, Nov. 13. On that day, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. the first "Project Showcase: The Olympics of Involvement" is to be held at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville.

Grace Duff, former assistant superintendent for the Illinois State Board of Education, will be the featured speaker, on "Community Participation: What Makes It Work?" Project coordinator is C. A. "Bud" McMillan of Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City.

"Recently, our nation has seen an unprecedented emphasis on citizen involvement. This emphasis has fostered many changes in communities throughout Illinois and the nation. One change is an increased need for sharing previously successful citizen involvement models and making the general public aware of what it can do to start its own successful activity," McMillan said.

"Project Showcase is designed to promote and assist the development of quality citizen involvement programs in Illinois communities. This program depends on people, institutions and organizations working together to improve educational, recreational and social services which enhance the quality of life in a neighborhood or community."

"Our goals are promoting and assisting the development of citizen involvement programs; fostering maximum exposure of successful projects regionally and statewide; providing an exchange of methodology and information that will increase the number and quality of citizen projects; and giving recognition to community members efforts in achieving their objectives."

Twenty projects will be on display from the registry act was made in Granite City by 12,457 to 1,313. It did not appear on the ballot in the other townships.

Girls' Team Gets 17th GCHS' Lora Wiser finishes 13th in State Meet

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

PEORIA — They were the same group of girls, but they seemed worlds apart.

At 11:15 Saturday morning, seven Granite City girls made a mad dash along with 190 other runners in the start of the 1984 Illinois State High School Cross Country Championship. Fighting a fine mist and a chilly 48-degree temperature at Peoria's Detweiler Park, they worked their bodies to the limits for the next 2.1 miles.

They maneuvered their way through a wicked 180-degree curve. Past a screaming crowd. Through a quiet wooded area. Around the curve again. Back down the long straightaway lined with cheering fans.

ELEVEN and a half minutes after the crowded start, the best runners in the entire state began crossing the finish line one by one — dirty, sweaty and exhausted.

Now, about two hours later, the same girls are wearing their finest at the awards ceremony in Peoria High School's gym. A large tally board underneath a basketball goal proclaims the top teams of the championship. Granite City is on the board, listed as finishing 17th with 415 points.

The Granite City girls arrive to the ceremony late from their last-minute preparations at the Red Roof Inn, where they spent Friday night wondering how they each would fare. The girls have exchanged their damp Warriors' uniforms for matching red sweaters.

ALL except for one, from Granite City, Lora Wiser, says the announcer. The Warriors' top runner, who is wearing a white dress and heels, walks to the center of the court to have a medal hung around her neck. Amidst the applause from the crowd — especially from her teammates — she steps to the runners behind the podium and takes her place among the other honored runners.

For anyone who wondered why individuals would want to put their body through the rigorous demands of cross country, this ceremony is as good an explanation as any.

"I'm pleased, I'm really pleased," said Wiser, after a team picture is taken when the ceremony is over. "I had said I would have liked to have finished in the top 10. But last year I finished 16th, so I made an improvement."

WISER'S time of 11:58 was remarkably close to her 11:55 time last year. But the course's damp conditions evidently slowed the top times. Dana Miroballi, a freshman from Wheeling, won this year's race with a 11:29.8. Last year's winning time was 11:26.4, posted by freshman Mary Driscoll of Elmhurst.

The Granite City team achieved a solid gain by finishing 17th out of 25 teams. The squad improved their performance by six places over last year's finish. Their 415 team points compares with 499 points accumulated by last year's squad.

"Going from 23rd (last year) to 17th is a good step up," said coach Dave McClain. "The girls set their goal next year to finish in the top 10. At least I'd like for our top five runners to finish in the top 75."

THE GIRLS have their work cut out for them. About a minute behind Wiser, sophomore Melody Witt crossed the finish line. Witt, in her first year in the sport, finished 115th overall with a 12:59.

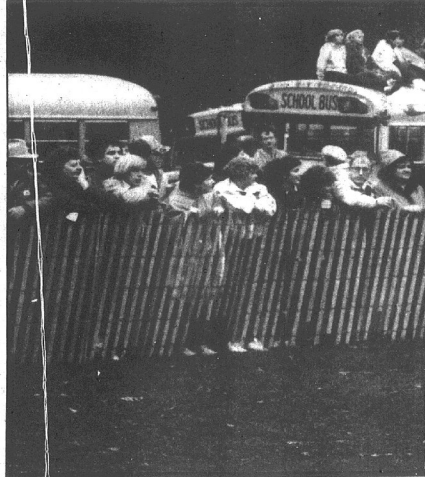

"It kind of shocked me," said Witt about the mass of runners at the starting line. "I was so nervous when the gun went off."

Witt said she has her own goal for next year.

"I'm going to concentrate on catching up with Lora (Wiser) and push her along," she said.

Sophomore Sheila Noel was the third runner for the Warriors, finishing 131st with a 13:06. She dropped 12 seconds from the time of her run in last year's championship.

THE LONE senior on Granite City's squad, Michelle Shoemaker, took 139th place with a 13:04. It was her last race in high school, for Shoemaker said she will not go out for track next spring.

CROSS COUNTRY CROWD. Spectators lean against a fence and even sit atop a school bus to watch the action in the state cross country championship held Saturday in Peoria. Granite City's Lora Wiser, number 151, works to stay on the heels of last year's runner-up Melissa Straza of Bloomington during the first half of the race. Lora went on to finish 13th, while Melissa Straza dropped to 43rd place. The Granite City team took 17th, improving on their 23rd place finish last year. (Press-Record Photo by Charlie Skaer)

"I wanted to get in the top 100," said Shoemaker. "I'm a little disappointed. I'm happy that I did get to go to state, but I wanted to do better."

Shoemaker ran in three cross country championships. Her junior year proved to be her best, where she took 123rd with a 12:59 time.

Granite City's last scorer, junior Faye Parrott, took 155th place with a 13:19. She improved her time over last year's run by an impressive 41 seconds. Coach McClain had an explanation for that improvement.

"WE TOLD her that all five places were important, especially hers," he said. "After the race she said, 'Thanks for the pressure.'"

Granite City's freshmen, Lori Pope and Marianne Finn, finished side-by-side as they have done throughout many of this year's races. The two took 195th and 196th, respectively, with times of 13:51 and 13:54.

Although the weather wasn't ideal, it did get worse. About 10 minutes after the completion of the girls' race, the fine mist-turned into a downpour. The rain plagued the Class AA boys' race, which began at 12:30 p.m.

Wheeling handily won the girls' championship, finishing with 50 points. Downers Grove North followed in second place while Elmhurst took third with 146 points.

Name Team, Conference Honors Warriors honor their own Wednesday at grid banquet

By JAMES BLASINGAME
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City High School gridgers were honored Wednesday night at their annual football awards banquet, sponsored by the Alumni 'G' Club and the Warriors' Booster Club.

Granite City head coach Ron Yates presented individual trophies to the team's most valuable players and also announced selections to the Southwestern Conference All-Star Team.

Defensive end Randy Davis was the recipient of the Keith Lucas Award. Lucas, from Granite City, was a U.S. Army helicopter pilot killed during the Grenada invasion in 1983. He attended North High School where he starred for the Steeler football team and maintained a fine academic record.

DAVIS was the starting tight end when the season began, but suffered a broken thumb in the East St. Louis game. Two weeks later, Davis returned to the lineup. Because he was forced to wear a soft cast to protect the injured thumb, Davis could no longer catch the football, but he did play defense.

"I knew he was playing in pain," said Yates. "The coaches decided on Randy (for the award) because he exhibited the same kind of integrity and courage that Keith had."

The John Tarpoft Award for the most outstanding lineman went to Chris Luffman. Luffman, a senior tri-captain, also received the team's most valuable defensive lineman award and was named to the All-Southwestern Conference first team.

HE SHOWED tremendous defensive ability and desire," Yates said. "He's got super lateral movement. It's amazing how a guy 215 pounds can catch a quarterback on an option after he's picked up two or three yards."

Luffman was credited with 13 solo tackles, 19 first hits, and 20 assists for a total 52 tackles. He also intercepted two passes.

"We're gonna miss Luffman and (Lonnie) Cook. Those are two big voids to fill," Yates said. "Chris is going to make some small college a fine defensive tackle."

THE MOST Valuable Offensive Back Award was given to Warrior tight end Chris Reuter.

"He only caught 10 balls, but they were all clutch catches. We could always count on him to be at the right place at the right time," said Yates.

Another tri-captain, Tim Moran received honors as the team's most valuable offensive lineman.

"He's very steady, very consistent," said the Warrior coach. "Whenever I needed a couple yards, we went over him. Most of the time he could handle his man."

THE VERSATILE senior was also selected as a second team all-conference linebacker. Moran had 12 solo tackles, 19 first hits, and 23 assists for a combined 54 stops.

Eric Graves was named as the team's most valuable defensive back, but was also selected as the First Team All-Conference Split End.

Graves compiled 19 solo tackles, 20 first hits, and 11 assists for 50 tackles, and he had four interceptions.

"He'll come up and hit you," said Yates. "He probably had five or six touchdown saving tackles. After watching game films, I could see plays where if Eric hadn't caught

Honors Athletes Vital sign: Warrior soccer program alive and 'kicking'

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — By comparison, the standards that the Warrior soccer team has set for itself in the past, this was not a good year for the Warrior soccer program. At least that's what the common observer may think.

After all, any year that the varsity team does not make an appearance in the state tournament is "an off year." In all, the Warriors have been this area's representative in the state tournament 10 of the 13 possible times. When the Warriors weren't there to compete in the state tournament either its sister school Granite City North or Collinsville was. And then there's this season on past, when Alton was this area's representative.

BETTER than think of what the Warrior soccer team didn't do this year, think of what was accomplished. That's just about the way Warrior soccer coaches Gene Baker, Mel Bunting and Dave Ames approached last Thursday night's soccer banquet.

"I'd rather stand in front of (our bench and be a loser than be a winner and stand before anyone else," Bunting said during the banquet.

"These are as fine a bunch of young men you'll find anywhere," Baker said.

Indeed, the banquet was an upbeat affair.

And there was good reason for it. Granite City might have missed its 11th bid in the state tournament, but it was difficult to tell by the positive tone of the banquet.

THE VARSITY Warriors finished the season 13-5-3. They were tri-champions of the Southwestern Conference and runners up in both the Tournament of Champions and the Granite City High School Sectional Tournament.

Despite not having made a showing in the annual state tournament, the Warriors still named two athletes — Mike Houston and Job Blasigame — to the All-State Tournament team. And that was reason for celebration.

In addition to those honors, those two, along with Brent Cook and Scott Grote, were named to the All Granite City Sectional Team.

HOUSTON, the Warriors' team captain this year, was also named the team's Most Valuable Player at the banquet.

"Not only has Mike been our team captain, but he's also been our team leader," Baker said. "It's for that reason, and for his constant, unrelenting, never-say-die play, that he's this year's Most Valuable Player."

Baker had individual praise for each of his athletes. His praise was particularly strong for the seniors.

The 12-year coach called Greg Gobble "the most unheralded player on the team."

"Greg never seems to get a lot of press, but he's one of our hardest workers and his play is consistent," Baker said.

AS FOR Dave Baggette, Baker praised the senior's attentiveness and willingness to learn and make adjustments both on the field and in the classroom.

When it came Grote's turn, Baker did a little kidding. Kidding the Warriors' leading scorer this year, Baker said Grote "comes from a good soccer family," but he couldn't figure out why HE played the way he

After making the catch, Tilley got up off the turf and spun away from the Dallas defender to score St. Louis' first touchdown of the afternoon. em (the ball carriers), there be nothing in their way except the goal posts."

OFFENSIVELY, Graves was the Warrior's biggest scoring threat. The senior speedster hauled in 23 receptions for 435 yards, an average of 19 yards per catch.

"He was our big play person. He had four touchdowns, and most of those were from 50 or 60 yards up," said Yates.

Granite City players who received Honorable Mention All-Conference were Dave Tatum, a junior running back; Moran, an offensive guard; Luffman, an offensive tackle; Cook, a defensive tackle; Reuter, a tight end; Mike Fenoglio, a junior line-backer; Graves, a safety; and Steve Davis, a punter.

All-conference honorees are voted upon by opposing coaches in the Southwestern Conference.

"FOR US to miss Belleville West

(forfeit due to teacher's strike) and to play East St. Louis the way we did (a 53-0 loss), and still get that many players mentioned on the all-conference team is a real credit to the kids," Yates said.

It was a difficult first year for the Warriors' head coach. The teachers' strike delayed the season, and kept the players from holding organized practices. Once the strike was finally over, the Warriors were plagued by injuries, as tri-captain Kurt Hyla went down and out for the season with a leg injury.

"HURT would have helped us out. He would have made his presence known on defense," said Yates. "I think everybody really missed something when they didn't get to see him play ball."

In the season opener against East St. Louis, starting fullback Steve Jacobs suffered a knee injury on the game's first play scrimmage, and he too was lost for the year. He didn't even get to carry the ball. Later in that game, Davis fractured his thumb, and for the rest of the season, with Jacobs and Hyla on crutches, the Warrior sideline looked like a M.A.S.H. unit.

"ONE THING about the injuries," said Yates, "it gave a lot of juniors valuable game experience."

"We've had to battle the odds. When you start off like we did, the adversity brings bonding together."

"We hope to be competitive next year. To get into the playoffs, we have to beat East St. Louis and Belleville West. There's not many conferences in the state of Illinois that have those type of teams in it," Yates said.

The Warrior mentor is already thinking ahead to next season. He will oversee a weight training program for junior gridlers who are not participating in a winter sport. It begins Monday.

The Madison Trojans have not yet held their football banquet, but it will take place later this month. Trojan coach Don Smith declined to announce any of the individual honorees, and will instead wait to recognize his athletes at the awards banquet.

did, he said jokingly.

As for Blasingame, Frank Soellner, Mike Dennis and the rest of the seniors, Baker congratulated them on a fine season.

Special awards went to Baggett, Houston, Gobble and Jim Chomko. Baggett was presented the Soccer Award, Houston the Most Valuable Player, Gobble the Most Improved Back and Chomko the Most Improved Forward. Most of the awards are self-explanatory. The Soccer Award is presented to the athlete who best exemplifies good sportsmanship and attitude on and off the soccer field.

AS POSITIVE as the varsity season was, the future may even be brighter still for Warrior soccer. The Jayvee squad, which is coached by Bunting, dropped their first game of the season 1-0 to Collinsville and then came back to win their next 13 and end the season 13-1.

"I told the kids that I take the blame for the first loss," Bunting said at the banquet. "I went into the game not as prepared as I'd have liked to be. So that one you can blame on me."

Bunting pointed out that his kickers went on to average the loss to the Kanoks later in the season in Collinsville, 1-0.

But as big as that win was, the Warrior Jayvee coach said his Warriors' biggest win of the season was the 3-1 victory over St. Mary's at Heine Meine Field.

"That one felt the best," Bunting said.

IN ALL, the Jayvee Warriors scored 51 goals in '84 while they yielded just six. That tally, naturally, netted numerous shutouts. Nine to be exact. Nine of 14 games were shutouts. Those shutouts were shared by goalkeepers Randy Chapman, Matt Kreckovich and Rusty Ethridge.

The Jayvee Warriors' leading scorer this year was sophomore Todd Hinterser who netted nine goals and four assists. Behind Hinterser was Brett Bjorkman with seven goals and four assists and Doug Partney with five goals and three assists.

Junior Bob Gaines did not score a goal this year but did manage 10 assists, most of them coming off corner kicks.

OTHER athletes Bunting praised for their contributions to the team this year included Bret Broadwater, Mike Conuch, Mike Loftus, all in the backfield, and David Harris, Bill Alexander, Steve Stecker and Scott Stack in the midfield.

"I'm very happy about the season and look forward to next season," Bunting said.

Because of the teachers' strike and games cancelled due to rain, the freshmen team, coached by Ames played just seven games.

After tying its first game with Collinsville, the Warriors won their next two before falling to St. Louis University High 2-0. Granite City lost to Belleville West to even its record at 2-1 before sweeping its final two games against Quincy Senior and Roxana to end the season 4-2-1.

THE REASON for the freshmen Warriors' success this year, Ames said, can be attributed to three factors.

"For starters, they showed a great amount of skill. They were all very good when they came to me," Ames said.

"Secondly, they showed a great deal of maturity for freshmen. They all seemed to really understand the game. Their execution of the game, was good."

"And finally, they're all very intelligent young men. They were easy to work with and when we needed to make an adjustment it could be done without much trouble," Ames said.

SPECIFICALLY, Ames cited Mike Lane, a back, as the anchor to the Warrior defense.

Moving to midfield, Ames credited his team's success to three individuals, Kirk Mills, Jeff Grote and Herbie Heaton.

"Kirk exemplifies the entire soccer player. He's got tremendous ball skills. He's our field general," Ames said.

As for Grote, Ames said he, too, has fine ball skills while simultaneously showing soccer maturity. Grote was the team's second leading scorer behind Derjick Wilkinson.

HEATON'S assets to the team, Ames said, were his constant ability to bring the ball upfield. "He's got a good shot, particularly with the left foot," Ames said.

Wilkinson, the team's leading scorer with four goals, has the ability to see the opening, the opportunity to score, Ames said.

The freshmen tally this season was 15 goals for, six against with three shutouts. Sharing the shutouts were Kreckovich, Chapman and Craig Dippel.

Other athletes Ames said contributed to the team's success this season was Tom Bladnick, Rick Witt, Kurt Atkinson, Brian Huxson, Mike Selter and Dan Wilson.

Open Sunday

Busy season not over for GCHS Band

Nearly two months have passed since the Granite City High School band took the field at the first home football game of the 1984-85 season, beginning what has been a busy, productive year. Besides marching and entertaining at the four home football games, two home soccer games and one parade, the band has competed in three marching competitions.

The first competition was held in Washington, Mo., on a dreary blustery day. They paraded in the morning and presented their halftime show in the afternoon, winning a second place trophy for their parade routine.

The following weekend found them in O'Fallon, Ill. This time nearly done in by the inclement weather.

Heavy rains fell throughout the day, covering the field with mud and muck. It took extreme effort to pick up marching feet during their routine. But again, the young musicians came through winning five awards.

The highlight of the marching season was still to come. At 5 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 27 three busloads of musicians and auxiliaries left Granite City for the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana to enter the 14th Annual Illini Marching Band Festival. At 10:15 a.m., the air echoed with strains of "When the Saints Come Marching In" as the musicians presented their parade routine for the competition judges. Sitting in the stadium all afternoon watching the other competing bands, the Granite City students better understood the necessity for those many, many extra rehearsals needed to perfect their competition routine. At 6:45 p.m., the drum majors, Rob Malinch and Denise Bard, responding to the direction of the stadium announcer, "Granite City Band, take the field," led the GCHS band into their final competition of the year. Once again Granite City students brought home awards — fifth place in field show, fourth place in parade, third place in parade auxiliaries and second place in parade percussion.

The busy marching season is completed, but it is not time to relax. Now all musical requirements must be passed before a student can be a member of the Concert Band, under the direction of Joseph Owens. Rehearsals begin again, preparing for the first concert, Thursday, Dec. 13, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Christmas Seals help the campaign against marijuana

What happens to your contribution when you donate to Christmas Seals? American Lung Associations around the country use Christmas Seal donations for a variety of programs whose goal is the control and prevention of lung disease. But there is a new program, inaugurated this year, designed to protect the health of our nation's children.

For the first time, the dangers of marijuana smoking to the lungs is being brought to the public's attention by the Lung Association. Marijuana impairs the ability of the lungs to protect against infection and severely irritates the respiratory system.

A problem unique to marijuana use, notes the association, centers on the way the weed is smoked. Users inhale deeply and retain smoke in the lungs.

Bigger role for schools in fight against abuse

Getting schools more involved in reporting and preventing child sexual abuse is the goal of a $100,000 federal grant to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.

DCFS Director Gordon Johnson said this month, "Since the first of the year, we've experienced a tidal wave of sexual abuse reports in Illinois."

"An estimated 7,000 children will be reported in 1984 as suspected victims of sexual abuse — a 67 percent rise from the year before when DCFS received suspected sex abuse reports involving 4,231 children."

"Yet school personnel — who spend more time with children than anyone other than family and friends — will report less than 10 percent of these situations."

"The department can help sexual abuse victims and their families," Johnson continued, "but only if situations are reported to us. And those who work with children can't be expected to report sexual abuse unless they recognize its danger signals and what can be done about them."

Johnson said Superintendent Donald Gill and the State Board of Education have made laudable efforts in recent years to encourage greater reporting from teachers. "But the rapidly growing scope of the sexual abuse problem dictates direct and concerted action by both the educational system and this agency," Johnson said.

The grant by the U. S. department of Health and Human Services calls for DCFS to conduct workshops for guidance counselors, teachers, school nurses, social workers and other school personnel.

Working with statewide educational organizations, DCFS will also develop a curriculum for children to help them recognize and protect themselves against victimization.

This curriculum will be field tested with 1,500 first, third and sixth graders in four school districts in the state. Those districts, two each in urban and rural communities, have yet to be selected.

"Our ultimate goal is to create a permanent link between DCFS and all schools in Illinois," Johnson said. "This link is essential in building a program to protect children against the physical trauma and emotional damage that sexual abuse can cause."

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Douglas Maurice Davis, 19, of 13 Lee Wright Homes, was charged with burglary by Venice police Thursday.

Davis is accused of taking a video-cassette recorder from a home last month.

Free diabetes testing Nov. 20 at St. Elizabeth

As part of National Diabetes Month, St. Elizabeth Medical Center and the Greater St. Louis Affiliate of the American Diabetes Association are offering a free diabetes screening test to community residents. The screening will take place in Pius XI Hall at the medical center, 2100 Madison Ave., Tuesday, Nov. 20, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Diabetes is now the nation's third leading cause of death by disease and the number one cause of new blindness. People at greater risk of developing diabetes are overweight, over 35 years of age, and have blood relatives with the disease.

For an accurate test, a person must have eaten at least 100 grams of carbohydrates two hours prior to the test. Do not eat or drink anything else in that two-hour period preceding the test. A meal of a sandwich (two slices of bread), 20 french fries, apple or cherry pie and whole milk (one cup) or soda (not diet) would be suitable prior to meeting. Other meal plans as well as carbohydrate values of many common foods and pre-test information may be obtained by calling St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3142, or the American Diabetes Association, Greater St. Louis Affiliate, at 1-314-968-3196. Known diabetics, including borderline cases (mild diabetics), will not be tested.

ACCESS AREA FOR LOCKS TO BE CLOSED

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, St. Louis District has announced that the West Alton Public Access Area at Locks and Dam 26 (Missouri side) will be closed to the public during January and February 1985.

The area will be opened at 5 o'clock each morning until the close of duck hunting season in mid-December 1984. No facilities will be open except the boat launching ramps after Nov. 30, 1984. After the hunting season, the area will be closed completely.

HELP PRESERVE OUR HISTORY

Old Six Mile Township (now Chouteau, Granite City, Nameoki and Venice) has a proud history which dates back to 1801.

Since May of 1981, when the Old Six Mile Historical Society was organized, donors have given the Society many items of local history which need to be protected and displayed.

Your help is needed in the purchase and restoration of the Zippel residence located at 3279 Maryville Road. This residence, which dates back to 1837, is one of the very few buildings left to remind us of our historical past. It is an ideal location for a museum which will include a library room, special programs for school children, and participation for everyone in the preservation of historic objects.

We ask every family in the Old Six Mile area to make a donation to finance and support this cultural community project.

ZIPPEL RESIDENCE 3279 MARYVILLE RD.

The names of donors contributing will be placed on plaques located inside the museum.

Shaw urges new guidelines to improve colleges, universities

Kenneth A. Shaw, chancellor of Southern Illinois University, urged the Illinois Board of Higher Education last week to loosen legislative and policy guidelines that he says restrict state-funded universities' efforts toward quality and economic development.

Shaw, at IBHE's November meeting in Chicago, suggested several changes he said he believes could improve access and the quality of higher education in Illinois.

One, he said, would be to let schools retain income, such as tuition, instead of having to turn it over to state coffers, from which it is later appropriated back. That way, universities could invest those funds and earn interest dollars to help with faculty salaries and equipment replacement, Shaw said.

SIU's chancellor also suggested a second legislative change — appropriating General Revenue funds, or tax dollars, in a lump sum rather than by line item. Such a change would allow more immediate flexibility in spending, he said.

"We should, of course, be held accountable, but in a post-auditing sense, for how we spend our dollars," Shaw said.

A third change would expand the classification of items which can be purchased through lease-purchase agreements. "Spreading the cost over a period of years would allow a department to purchase necessary items without having to make a special request for funds," Shaw explained.

Shaw also proposed more realistic budget penalties ("comparative cost adjustments") levied against universities in cases where operating costs of various units exceed 100 percent of average costs statewide. Shaw said most of those added costs are the result of enrollment drops and fluctuations.

"Some sort of acknowledgment of the uncertain nature of enrollment during these times needs to be made," Shaw said. "There will be fluctuations from school to school from time to time and we must not act too fast in our unit cost deliberations."

Shaw said perhaps a three- or four-year period should be used to judge whether an institution is having cost problems. Otherwise, he warned, institutions may focus more on recruitment and retention to keep from suffering negative cost adjustments, and in the process, neglect quality.

Besides legislative and policy changes, Shaw recommended changing an IBHE policy which limits an institution's granting of undergraduate tuition waivers to two percent of its full-time fall enrollment.

Shaw sees scholarships as an effective way of improving teacher education and the development of minority faculty. But a university's options in coming up with imaginative solutions to such problems are limited by the IBHE's lid on the number of waivers allowed, he said.

While universities can exceed the two-percent limit, they're penalized at budget time if they do.

Shaw said the policy should be re-examined in terms of increased quality that could be gained.

Finally, he called for a realistic approach to remedial programs in state universities.

"We're not going to improve the quality of teaching and the preparation of students in public schools overnight," Shaw said. "For at least the next five years, remediation of some kind will be essential at public universities, as well as at community colleges."

Man wounded in gunfire exchange

Kascel Jennings of 308 Hill St., Eagle Park, suffered a bullet wound through the right leg, about six inches above the ankle, at 1 a.m. Sunday at Gareche Homes, Madison.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Jennings said his videocassette recorder was taken by a burglar Friday and he went to the Gareche area early Sunday in an effort to get the recorder back from those he suspected of taking it.

Exchanges of gunfire occurred,

PREPARES FOR SURGERY

Tammy Ruf, 19, of 2172 Lee Ave., was admitted to St. Louis Children's Hospital Friday and will undergo surgery Tuesday to help correct a birth defect. She was the poster child for the local crippled children's organization a few years ago. The family says cards and letters will be welcomed and may be sent to St. Louis Children's Hospital, Room 815, 400 S. Kingshighway, St. Louis, Mo., 63110.

FIRE DAMAGED IN VENICE

Fire damaged the living room of a residence owned and occupied by Julius Johnson Jr., 531 Washington Ave., Venice, at 7:15 p.m. Friday. The blaze was attributed to an electrical problem, possibly in a television set.

with some of the firing by Jennings, an investigation showed. He was in a crouching position outside his car when he was wounded.

Bullets damaged his auto plus the parked car of Roschell Williams, the apartment of Richard Williams, 107 Gareche, and the residence of Timothy Byrd, 1670 Second St.

At the latter home, police traced the path of a bullet that pierced a wall. A .38-caliber projectile was found.

The confrontation began in the area of 86 Gareche. When he called out to say that he wanted to recover his recorder, and then got out of his auto, gunfire began from a green car that was occupied by five or six persons, Jennings told police.

He then tried to drive away but his vehicle stalled. Jennings next got out of the auto again and began to shoot back, he related. It was at this point that he was shot. He walked to a relative's home and was taken to the hospital.

There were several autos in the vicinity and one was abandoned, with its engine still running, when Darrell Williams ran to safety.

U. S. Senator

Walker won that four-year term, using anti-tax tactics against both Simon and Republican Richard Ogilvie.

Ever since 1976, the governor has been James Thompson (R), winner that year and in 1978 and 1982.

NEVER RETURNING to a state elective office, Simon moved on to serve in Congress for 10 years from the district immediately to the south of here.

Last week, he captured a six-year U.S. Senate term by defeating Charles H. Percy (R) of the Chicago suburban area.

R. T. Smith lost his Senate post in 1970 to Adlai Stevenson (son of 1952 Gov. Adlai Stevenson), and the younger Stevenson was re-elected in 1974 before retiring in 1980, when the position went to Alan Dixon (D) of Belleville.

VIVID MEMORIES of Simon's long governmental career are shared by many Quad Cityans.

Ruggedly honest, tireless, knowledgeable and articulate, the bow-tie wearing Simon first won local hearts and then those of the liberal wing of his party nationwide.

The cheers at his triumph last week reverberated throughout America, except among those unsure whether they want him to be as anti-Pres. Reagan as they expect him to be.

LOCAL RESIDENTS recall Simon as being an adept, fast-thinking debater in campaigns here and later in discussions on the floor of the Illinois House, Illinois Senate and U.S. House.

Debates were a highlight of the Simon-Percy battle, even though both sides claimed they were a lot of "lowlights," too. The campaign and some of its advertising was seen as overly negative.

One critic of Percy spent nearly $1 million to help elect Simon but he had no link to the Simon campaign group.

In Washington, Simon hopes to receive committee assignments that will enable him to focus on domestic issues, including education and labor. Sen. Percy's specialty was foreign relations.

OMBUDSMAN DUTIES were undertaken voluntarily by Simon as lieutenant governor and he kept busy throughout the four years that he served as the No. 2 official to a Republican governor. As a senator, he again plans to emphasize service to constituents as well as economic development.

Simon is known as the kind of politician who never forgets a face or name, and knows how to include

Road block approved by Granite aldermen

Granite City aldermen approved a request last week that will allow Project Help to operate a roadblock on Dec. 14 and 15.

The roadblock will be conducted at the intersection of Nantook and Johnson roads between the hours of 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Project Help is an organization that distributes food to the area's unemployed at no cost to the recipients. This program is funded by community contributions.

Grant can help veterans find jobs

Nearly $64 million is available nationwide through a federal program to hire and train unemployed veterans, and the Illinois Job Service, an arm of the Department of Employment Security, urges employers in this state to apply for an equitable share of those funds.

They are available through the Emergency Veterans' Job Training Act, a provision of which provides cash incentive to employers to hire and train Vietnam and Korean veterans in growth industry jobs and occupational skills of the future.

The program is administered by the Veterans Administration and the U.S. Department of Labor through the Illinois Job Service and funds are available on a first-to-apply, first-to-be-awarded basis.

Through the federal program, employers are awarded cash reimbursements of 50 percent of each veteran's starting salary up to $10,000 during a six to nine month training period. The training can be conducted on site, through an approved educational institution or both, according to Larry Kite, deputy director of the agency's Operations Bureau.

Veterans must have a permanent job when the training is completed and seasonal work, jobs based on commissions and positions with religious or political activities are not eligible for the program, Kite announced.

To be eligible for the federal program, veterans must have been discharged from active military service under other than dishonorable conditions and served more than 180 days, any part of which occurred during either the Korean War or Vietnam conflict. They also must have been unemployed for 15 of the 20 weeks immediately preceding the time of application for training.

Veterans who are interviewed for the training programs must have a certificate of eligibility obtained from the Veterans Administration through that agency or any Illinois Job Service office in the state. Community job service resources are available to veterans and employers to assist with the certification and application processes, according to Kite.

Once the training program has been approved, funding is committed within two weeks, the state official announced. Payments are made quarterly or monthly, the latter to firms with 75 employees or less.

Illinois' EVJTA effort was launched in December of last year, according to Samuel Parks, state director of the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service. At that time, 825 Illinois employers have enrolled in the program and 530 veterans have been placed in 1,800 training slots applicable to the program.

The Illinois Job Service, from October 1983 through September of this year, placed more than 14,300 veterans in jobs registered with the state, including those who qualified for the EVJTA program.

"Veterans represented 12.8 percent of all placements made and Illinois employers to be recommended to attaching a priority to this productive segment of our labor force," Parks announced.

Of the $130 million Congress has appropriated for the EVJTA program through August of next year, more than $66 million has been obligated nationwide to date, with Illinois commitment totaling $22 million.

"The remaining $63.75 million is available to all employers in the country on a first-to-apply, first-to-be served basis, with Illinois employers eligible for any portion of that amount," Parks emphasized.

More than 3,500 occupations are covered by the EVJTA program. To learn what companies and jobs qualify, interested persons may telephone the Illinois Job Service. There is no charge for this service to employers or veterans.

Uptrend in bus riders

The Bi-State Transit division of the Bi-State Development Agency reports that in September bus ridership increased for the seventh time in the past eight months.

Total ridership for the first three months of fiscal year 1985, starting July 1, 1984, was up 10 percent over the same three months last year, to 11,919,000 passengers.

"We are confident that sustained ridership increases mark a reversal in the decreasing ridership that began in 1980," Michael H. Linn, general manager of transit services, said.

"Then we were forced to cut service and raise fares due to decreases in federal operating subsidies. That triggered the decline."

"There has been a concerted effort on the part of our employees to bring riders back to using bus services and that, plus an improved economy, is a key reason for the change."

"The upswing in ridership has been accompanied by an increase in customer-oriented service throughout the Bi-State system. Improved maintenance, bus cleaning and appearance and expanded marketing and promotional activities are part of the system's efforts to better serve its riding public and attract new riders."

SIUE chorale clinic scheduled

The 22nd Annual High School Choral Clinic, sponsored by the department of music at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will feature Harold Decker, emeritus professor of music at the University of Illinois-Champaign, according to Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at SIUE.

The event is scheduled Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the SIUE Conference Center and St. Boniface Church in Edwardsville. Activities will run from 8:30 a.m., when students arrive for picture taking and registration, until 4 p.m., following a brief concert by the SIUE Concert Choral conducted by Van Camp.

THE MORNING clinic sessions will meet in the University Conference Center, while those in the afternoon are scheduled at St. Boniface Church.

Until retirement in 1981, Professor Decker was chairman of the choral division of the School of Music at the University of Illinois. He supervised the main choral activities of the university, developing a program attracting over 700 students.

Prior to coming to Illinois, Decker spent 13 years at Wichita State University. He has received a number of honorary degrees and awards and is the author of two highly influential books and many seminal articles. He continues to work nationwide at choral clinical sessions at all levels.

"DR. DECKER is a legend in choral music," Van Camp said, adding "I know his work personally because I had the privilege of studying under him at Wichita State University. His presence guarantees a rich, rewarding experience for all who take advantage of the opportunities presented at this clinic.

Emphasis in the morning sessions will be directed to rhythm, music as communication, and the basic elements of blend and balance. All ideas will be dramatized by particular selections.

The afternoon sessions are entitled: "Producing a Lovely, Lyric Tone" and "An Invitation to Imitation." The activities of the day will be summarized in the concluding presentation by the concert choral.

THOSE ATTENDING the clinic will be required to purchase selections of clinic music to be used, all of which are available from Shattler Music Co. For further information on arrangements to attend the workshop, interested persons may contact Leonard Van Camp, 1-692-3600.

BAC theater presents 'Philadelphia, Here I Come'

This fall's Three-Act Play at Belleville Area College will be Brian Friel's "Philadelphia, Here I Come!"

It will be presented in the college theater at 8 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 16 through 18.

TICKETS, available at the door, will be $1 for the public and free to BAC students with ID.

The play is a sensitive, heartwarming examination of family relationships which centers around a father and son relationship. The son, Gareth O'Donnell, is about to leave his home in Ireland to live in America but would stay with his father and work for him if only his father, S. B. O'Donnell, would tell him he loves him, needs him and wants him to stay.

The play has its comic moments because two actors play the son. One portrays the Public Gareth — the one that all the other characters see and interact with. Another portrays the Private Gareth — Public's other ego and conscience, invisible to all except Public.

PRIVATE REVEALS to the audience all the Public is thinking and feeling.

"This is my favorite play in the whole wide world," said Director Al Friedman, BAC speech and theater instructor. "It reminds me of last year's Oscar-winning film, 'Terms of Endearment.' It is a similar examination of family relationships, with wildly comic situations alternating with gut-wrenching moments of honest heartbreak."

"It makes the audience continually laugh and cry, giving them a complete theater experience," Friedman said.

DR. JACK STOKES, a BAC speech and theater instructor, will portray the father, S. B. O'Donnell.

Bill Zeigler and Mike Cecil will tackle the dual roles of the son. Cynthia Wheeler will play Maggie, the housekeeper, and Karen Wolf will play Katie Doogan, Gareth's sweetheart.

Belleville East theater instructor Check Zeller will play the role of Boyle, the school teacher and Friedman, the play's director, will portray the unlovable Senator Doogan. Aunt Lizzy will be portrayed by Lucy Tippett, her husband Con by William Krantz and her best friend Bonnie by Lynda LeGrande.

GARETH'S THREE friends will be played by Curt Conner, Eric Marechle and Jeff Hopkins. Canon Mick O'Bryne will be played by Len Adams.

Scott Bramstedt is technical director and Amy Webb is designing and making costumes.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED

Attorney At Law

The question often arises as to whether a wife can agree to accept a reduced amount of child support from that awarded in the judgment of dissolution. Frequently a situation occurs where the husband is ordered to pay a particular amount in the divorce decree, and he subsequently begins paying less because he falls on hard times. If he can get his ex-wife to agree to these lesser payments, does that relieve him of the responsibility for the arrearage that develops? This question was answered in a 1980 case decided by the Illinois Supreme Court.

In this case, the couple was divorced, and the wife was awarded custody of the children. The husband was ordered to pay $550 per month in child support. The husband paid for a while, but then he started paying only $250 per month. Shortly after that, he even stopped paying the $250. Finally, an arrearage developed of over $11,000.

The ex-wife in this case went to Court seeking payment of the arrearage. The husband responded that there was an agreement between his former wife and himself to reduce the support, and that was the reason why he had not paid the full $550 per month as originally ordered. The mother of the children contended that there was not an agreement, and that the father of the children usually told her what he was going to pay, and that she could take it or leave it.

The Court in this case first noted that one party in a divorce cannot take it upon himself to reduce child support payments. The Court cited numerous cases which stood for the proposition that modification of an existing child support order usually must be accomplished by the paying spouse returning to Court to seek a reduction. However, this Court did conclude that in certain circumstances, an arrearage could be reduced by agreement of the parties.

In this case, the Court found nothing to indicate such an agreement. The mother here had kept a diary of the arrearages, showing a monthly amount of $550 being due. The Court noted that there was conflicting testimony, and it viewed the former wife's testimony as slightly more believable. From the findings in this case and later cases, it is apparent that agreements are going to be examined very closely by the Courts, and only in rare situations will agreement to reduce support be found to exist.

55-Alive driving course starts tomorrow at GCC

The 55 - Alive Training Class will be available in Granite City. The class will be in the daytime and is designed to increase the older driver's concern for the normal age-related physical change of vision, hearing, and reaction time, as they affect driving and increase awareness of appropriate technique for driving in today's complex traffic patterns.

It will be Room 542 at the Granite City Center, 4950 Maryville Road for two days, Nov. 13 and 14 from 9 a.m.

to 1 p.m.

The cost will be $7 per person for the two-day session and may be paid on the first day of class. Only persons 55 years of age and older are eligible.

Most insurance companies will allow a discount on insurance premiums for seniors who have taken the class.

For further information or to register for class, seniors may call the RSVP office in Granite City at 876-3223.

City employee promoted to computer coordinator

Granite City aldermen approved the appointment of Jackie Reinagel to the city's computer coordinator at their meeting last week.

Mrs. Reinagel's appointment was recommended by City Comptroller Joe Miklovic.

In a letter to the council, Miklovic told members that while making the selection, he had maintained the city's posture of attempting to promote from within the city ranks.

Mrs. Reinagel previously worked in the city treasurer's office for five years. Her last job assignment was deputy city treasurer.

Handbook lists trade schools

A new Handbook of Trade and Technical Careers and Training, listing over 700 accredited postsecondary trade and technical schools now is available at no charge from the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools.

The free handbook lists 98 careers requiring two years training or less. Descriptions of each career and the length of time required to train for each also are included in the handbook.

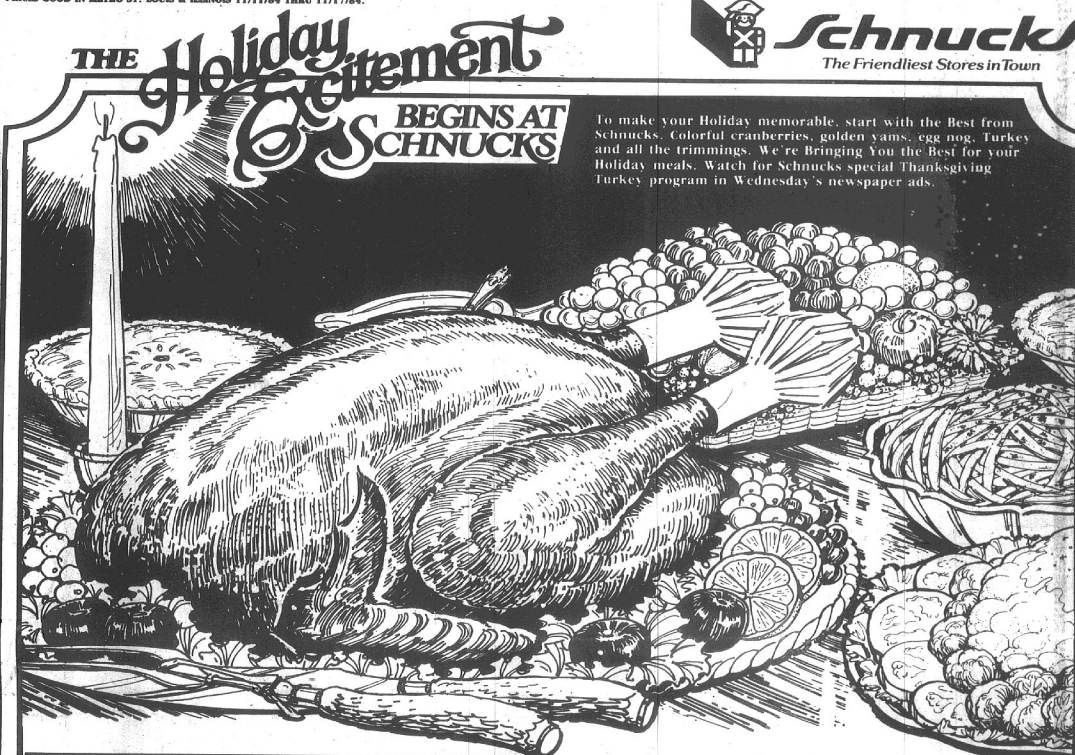

The handbook is a source for people trying to discover and identify potential career opportunities. It provides information on career planning, how to choose a career and a career school and the importance of accreditation to the student.

The handbook also features career questions and answers, addresses and telephone numbers for accredited trade and technical schools across the country, a list of free career planning publications and mailback cards to contact individual schools about courses, admission requirements and training programs.

A free copy of the 1984-85 handbook is available by writing NATTS, Department PK4, 2251 Wisconsin Ave., NW, Washington, D.C., 20007.

KATO

FAITHFUL VALET of the Green Hornet

KATO WAS THE ONLY PERSON WHO KNEW THE TRUE IDENTITY OF THE GREEN HORNET... NEWSPAPER-MAN BRITT REID. NOT ONLY DID KATO COOK AND RUN THE HORNET'S HOME, HE WAS ALSO A BRILLIANT CHEMIST, A MASTER OF ORIENTAL SELF-DEFENSE, AND A SKILLED DRIVER OF THE SLEEK AUTO. BLACK BEAUTY. THREE ACTORS PLAYED KATO ON RADIO (1936-52).

IT IS SAID THAT KATO WAS JAPANESE UNTIL DEC. 7, 1941, WHEN THE PRODUCERS OF THE RADIO SHOW ABRUPTLY CHANGED HIS NATIONALITY TO FILIPINO. THIS IS APPARENTLY APOCRYPHAL FOR THERE IS NO EVIDENCE HE WAS EVER REFERRED TO AS JAPANESE IN OLD SCRIPTS OR RECORDINGS.

WITH HIS FAITHFUL VALET, KATO, BRITT REID, DARING YOUNG PUBLISHER, MATCHES WITS WITH THE UNDERWORLD...
